

eTwinning IVET group

Your European community to connect, collaborate and grow in initial vocational education and training

What is the eTwinning IVET group?

The initial vocational education and training (IVET) community is an eTwinning group bringing together IVET professionals from across Europe. It exists to improve the quality, relevance and innovation of IVET through collaboration, helping you connect with peers, explore funding opportunities and share what works in your classroom and institution.

What can you find there?

Information on European IVET systems

Discover how vocational education is organised in different European countries. This helps you find partners and design projects that fit diverse education systems.

Webinars and activities

Access webinars, thematic workshops and community activities. Find event ideas and promotional materials to help your institution showcase its European engagement (e.g. Erasmus days).

eTwinning and Erasmus+ working together

Explore the opportunities of virtual and physical mobility through practical guides on how eTwinning can support your Erasmus+ KA1 and KA2 applications. Browse successful project results and get inspired by examples from IVET practitioners.
